Show Synopsis

Welcome to the Renaissance and the outrageous, crowd-pleasing musical farce, Something Rotten. Created by Grammy Award-winning songwriter Wayne Kirkpatrick, and successful screenwriters Karey Kirkpatrick and John O'Farrell, Something Rotten was lauded by audience members and critics alike. It received several Best Musical nominations and was hailed by Time Out New York as "the funniest musical comedy in at least 400 years".

Set in the 1590's, brothers Nick and Nigel Bottom are desperate to write a hit play but are stuck in the shadow of that Renaissance rock star known as "The Bard." When a local soothsayer foretells that the future of theatre involves singing, dancing and acting at the same time, Nick and Nigel set out to write the world's very first musical. But amidst the scandalous excitement of opening night, the Bottom Brothers realize that reaching the top means being true to thine own self, and all that jazz.

Something Rotten features large song and dance numbers, and a wacky cast of over-the-top characters, each given his or her own special moment in the show to shine. Throughout its Broadway run, the musical received a show-stopping standing ovation from audiences... in the beginning of the first act!

Cast Bios

Emily Beeny (Psychic Woman/Ensemble) is an elementary teacher in Madisonville, Kentucky. She has been involved in productions with Campanile Productions and the Glema Mahr Center for the Arts in Madisonville, KY. for over 15 years. In her free time she loves to read, hike, play with her puppy Gracie, and enjoys spending time with her friends and family. She can also be seen in various movies produced by Big Biting Pig Productions. She would like to thank her family and friends for all the support. Lots of love to this amazing cast and crew!!

Becky Dearman (Nostradamus) is beyond thrilled to be playing the part of Nostradamus in Something Rotten. She has enjoyed working with Campanile in the past both on stage in Mamma Mia (Rosie), The Addams Family (Fester), Steel Magnolias (Clairee), and The Wizard of Oz (company) and in the sound booth for numerous shows. In addition to Campanile, Becky is proud to serve as a board member of the Pennyroyal Arts Council. She has performed stand up locally at Main Street Tavern and has also been featured at Hopkinsville Brewing Company for Drunken History. In her free time, she can be found baking bread or completing whatever projects Nancy has for her or wrangling their two hounds and wouldn't trade a single second of it all! Becky would like to thank the Campanile family for giving her this chance with this character and she PREDICTS you all will enjoy this show!

Hannah Jane Holland (Ensemble) is a senior at University Heights Academy, where she is Co-Captain of the varsity tennis team and is a member of the varsity cheer squad. When not supporting the Blazers, she loves to be on-stage. She has been fortunate to be part of Campanile Productions since she was 8 years old, some of her favorite shows are Annie, Peter Pan, and the Wizard of Oz. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Caleb Huffman (Eye Patch Man/Ensemble) This is Caleb's first year with Campanile and so far its been a great one :)

Erica Jordan (Ensemble) is a Hematology/ Oncology Nurse Practitioner at Baptist Health in Paducah. Something Rotten is her first production EVER. She is so thankful to Campanile for this opportunity and to my three children for encouraging me to step out of my comfort zone.

Krista Kiesle (Ensemble) Is appearing in her third show with Campanile Productions. She loves being a part of a group that just likes to have fun! She and her husband love to camp, hike and kayak with our rescue pups.

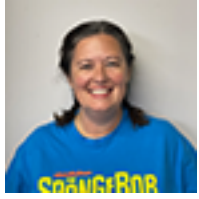

Haley Killebrew (Ensemble) is a senior at Heritage Christian Academy, and is super excited to participate in her first "Adult" show, but she has appeared in the Campanile Summer Camps. She's recently played the role of Belle in Beauty and the Beast in HCA's most recent show, and is excited to be back on stage with Campanile again after a summer full of Jr shows. Haley would like to thank her family and friends for supporting her through the thick and thin. Enjoy the show!

Logan Kirkman (Francis Flute / Tom Snout) is a local real estate agent with Kirkman Real Estate. Logan is excited to return to the stage after playing Morris Delancey in Campanile's March production of Newsies. This is his 11th production with Campanile and his 15th overall.

Shelley Ladd (Astrologer/Ensemble) is not new to the stage, though it might be harder to pick her out of the crowd this time around due to the wig. She is a lifelong lover of both theater and comedy, so this play was a great fit for her. Outside of rehearsal, Shelley enjoys teaching Biology at Hopkinsville High School (she has the best students), and spoiling her dog rotten.

Thomas Lamirande (Robin) is a senior at University Heights Academy! This is his second show with Campanile. His debut was Footloose this past summer, and he is so excited to be returning to the stage with this crazy crew as Robin.

Lauren Lee (Ensemble) is a Family Nurse Practitioner at Foundations Primary Care in Cadiz, KY. Although she's been away from the stage awhile, she enjoys community theatre and being on stage. This is her third show with Campanile and she loves being a part of this amazing theatre family. She has performed in Disney's Beauty and the Beast and The Little Mermaid. When not on stage you can find her riding horses with her girls, reading, and eating. She has been married to her husband Chase for 13 years and they have two beautiful daughters, Ella and Emery. She is a new Aunt Lala to her handsome nephew Gabriel. She wants to thank her family, work family, and friends for their love and support. She hopes you enjoy the show and have a rotten good time!

Kasey Miranda (Ensemble/Puritan), is a Registered Nurse from Princeton, KY and is excited to be appearing in her first Campanile Productions show! She has routinely been a part of the Alhambra theatre audience and decided this year that she wanted to go for a spot on the stage! When she's not at rehearsal or performing, she's working at Caldwell County Schools or alongside her husband at their dental office, Miranda Dental.

Jennifer Moorefield (Ensemble) is absolutely delighted to be back on stage and performing once again with Campanile Productions. She has taken a break over the past couple of years to focus on advancing her nursing education and career. Jennifer made her stage debut as Grace in The Best Christmas Pageant Ever. She and her children have been a part of this wonderful community for over a decade and are so thankful to be part of something so amazing and impactful. Jennifer spends her free time homeschooling her children, Elliott and Kennedy. Her most favorite things are spending time with Rachael and her children, eating French fries, hiking, being a mother, taking care of others and power naps. Jennifer is thankful for Rachael, Elliott and Kennedy and her Campanile family!

Clarissa Ozburn (Portia) is a 17 year old home school senior. While her family has been involved with Campanile from the beginning, she is just recently back on their stage. Clarissa was previously seen as Katherine Plumber in Disney's Newsies and most recently as Rusty in Footloose. She is grateful to be a part of a family that encourages and celebrates the arts. Thank you to the Riggs family who have made it possible.

Andy Pitts (Brother Jeremiah) is excited to be appearing in his second Campanile production, having previously played Joseph Pulitzer in Newsies. While a newcomer to Hopkinsville, Andy is no stranger to the stage, having appeared in many productions throughout middle Tennessee. Some of Andy's favorite roles include Curly in Oklahoma!, Frank Butler in Annie Get Your Gun, and Felix Ungar in The Odd Couple. Andy is especially excited to share the stage again with his lovely and talented wife, Barbie. “Thanks to our audiences for supporting live theatre in Western Kentucky!!”

Barbie Pitts (Helena/Ensemble) is pleased to be appearing in her second show with Campanile Productions on the beautiful Alhambra Theatre stage! She was first seen as Hannah in Newsies. She and her handsome and talented husband, Andy, have been blessed to share the stage together in many shows over the years at various theatres in the area. Some of Barbie’s favorite roles include Annie Oakley in Annie Get Your Gun, Eliza Doolittle in My Fair Lady, M’Lynn in Steel Magnolias, and Mary Hatch in It’s A Wonderful Life. Aside from theatre, Barbie enjoys spending time with her family, reading, hiking, beekeeping and working in her yard. “A BIG shout out to AB for her patience & encouragement while this old gal learned the choreography for this show and to the production team and fellow cast mates for making this show a blast and one to remember!! To our audience, get ready to laugh and have a rotten good time!!!”

Ashley Riggs (Bea Bottom) is a seasoned veteran of Campanile Productions. She has been involved with Campanile since 2009 and was most recently seen as Vi Moore in Footloose. Some of her favorite roles have been playing Morticia Addams in Addams Family the Musical and Holly in the Wedding Singer. Outside of doing theater she owns Joelle’s Bakery here in Hopkinsville and is a mom of two. She has loved being a part of this amazing cast and is so thankful for all of their hard work in making this show come together.

Ryan Riggs (Nigel Bottom) is a senior at Hopkinsville High School. You might recognize him as Davey from Campanile’s Newsies, and Buddy the Elf in Campanile’s Elf Jr. He also performed in The Addams Family, Peter Pan, and many other shows. Friend of Trent.

Rachel Sanders (ensemble) is a graduate of HCA and current resident of Clarksville. She is thrilled to be on stage with the Campanile crew after spending so many years in the audience, and is especially excited to live out her dream of being a tap dancing egg! Rachel is a Wedding and Event Coordinator in the Hopkinsville and Clarksville area. She is married to Scotty Sanders and they have two adorable fur babies.

Scotty Sanders (Peter Quince/Bard Boy) is 30 years old and works as a podcast editor, audiobook narrator, voiceover artist, and more. This is Scotty’s second show with Campanile, in the first he played Bill Jukes in Peter Pan. Scotty is a gamer, a music lover, and the world’s best dog dad, and married to Rachel Sanders. He loves being able to express a lifelong passion on the stage with Campanile Productions.

Drew Schumann (Shylock/Ensemble) returns to the stage after a decades long absence. Prior experience includes Guys and Dolls, Fiddler on the Roof, Godspell and South Pacific. He is the personal property of his wife, Ellen, his two daughters, two grand-daughters and his dog, Lela. He is retired and enjoys physical fitness, restoring vintage automobiles as well as building flintlock rifles.

Ellen Schumann (Ensemble) is returning to the Alhambra stage in her third production with Campanile. Her community theatre experience has spanned 42 years and 33 productions. In those years, she’s been an actor, stage manager, stage crew, painter, builder, makeup crew, played men, a dog, and even a ghost. Now she’s even added playwright to her resume...twice! She’s a hiker, reader, but what she loves best is dancing with her granddaughters, Maggie and Melody. Husband Drew joins her in this production, truly a family affair!

Olivia Smiley (Ensemble) is a senior at University Heights Academy! Theatre has been a huge part of her life since the age of four. She is so thankful for the opportunities that Campanile has given her and she cannot wait to finish out this season of her life with this amazing group of people.

Amanda Thorne (Ensemble) started dancing when she was three years old and hasn't really stopped since. From dance recitals to performing with the Turnout Dance Company for years, the Alhambra stage holds a dear place in her heart. This will be her 6th show with Campanile, and she's excited to be a part of this cast. She would like to thank her husband for keeping their two kids under control at home, so that she is able to be a part of this awesome show! Amanda is excited and ready to dust off her dancing shoes once again and get back on this stage that has made so many memories and continues to year after year.

Turner Vaughn (Nick Bottom) is a three time Tony Award viewing actor from Madisonville, Kentucky. He recently graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan College (KWC) with a Bachelors in Arts for Theatre. He has always had a passion for theatre ever since he saw the original Star Wars trilogy. Over the years, he has played many incredible roles including (but not limited to) Sweeney Todd in Sweeney Todd (KWC, 2022), Freddy Benson in Dirty Rotten Scoundrels (Encore Musicals of Owensboro, 2019), and Nathan Detroit in Guys and Dolls (KWC, 2020). He first found Campanile in 2018 playing the role of Lefou in their production of Beauty and the Beast. Since then, he has been itching to come back to perform with Campanile Productions once again. Some of his filmography includes Tinker Tone Pictures The U.F.O Girl as well as the upcoming Blood Moon Pictures New Fears Eve. Turner is very excited to be playing Nick Bottom in this 'celebration of theatre'. Enemy of Trent.

Gerame Wells (Ensemble) I am the father of Trent. I work at the hospital. I have been involved in stage theater and with Campanile since Feb 2022. I would like to thank Tressy, my amazing wife and the faithful mother of our 6 children—she is in the front row tonight. I am so proud of all the cast and staff—especially my guys Tate, Tucker, and Trent and young-pastor Jack.

Jackson Wells (William Shakespeare) is a youth minister in Hopkinsville at Southside Church of Christ. Something Rotten is his fifth show with Campanile Productions, having previously performed in Mamma Mia, Peter Pan, Newsies, and Footloose. Jackson moved to Hopkinsville after graduating from WKU several years ago and has enjoyed getting to know the community through theater. He enjoys woodworking, being outside, and watching football. Cousin of Trent

Tate Wells (Minstrel/Valet) This is Tate's fourth show with Campanile. He was previously in Footloose, Newsies, and most notably Peter Pan where he played Smee. He's so excited to get to participate in this show, and is so thankful to the Campanile team for allowing him this opportunity! Brother of Trent.

Trent Wells (Messenger) is 15 and goes to HCA. He was in Newsies, Footloose and Shrek Jr. He is excited for this opportunity and is thankful for the Campanile team and their love for the actors. He has two brothers in the show, a cousin, and a Father in the show. He is Trent.

Tucker Wells (Snug/Bard Boy/Announcer) has been with Campanile Productions for 3 years. Campanile shows that he has been in include: Elf Jr. as Santa, Peter Pan as Slightly Soiled, and Newsies as Jack Kelly. Tucker is very eggcited for this musical and he is thankful for everyone who came out to be here. Brother of Trent

Brandy Westerfield (Miranda/Waitress/Sad Little Egg/Ensemble) This is Brandy's seventh time being a part of Campanile Productions. Other roles she's played have been "Donna" in Mamma Mia, "Lady of the Lake" in Spamalot, "Velma" in Hairspray, "Wardrobe" in Beauty & the Beast, "Humpty Dumpty" in Shrek, and a ballroom dancer in Cinderella. When she's not on stage, she is a wife, mother, & Therapist. Brandy encourages anyone who's never been a part of these shows to give it a try! She & Nostradamus (Becky) have really missed Tiffany, Matt, Andy, & Jason not being in this show with them.

Production Team Bios

Melanie Ozburn (Costume Designer); is one of the founding directors of Campanile Productions providing costume design as well as vocal and creative direction. In addition to maintaining close ties with Campanile, she has been designing costumes for DeSoto Family Theatre in Southaven, Mississippi.

Anna Beth Riggs (choreographer) is a Hopkinsville native with a BFA in musical theatre from Samford University, Anna Beth has worked both regionally and locally for the last decade as a performer, choreographer, and director. Now based in New York City, she works in tv and film production with studios such as Apple TV, HBOMax, and Netflix. She is so grateful to Campanile for always inviting her back home to play and create with the most generous of communities. Some of her proudest choreography credits with Campanile include The Little Mermaid, Hairspray, and The Wedding Singer. To the cast of Something Rotten, thank you for the countless hours given in both group and individual rehearsal. I think the world of each of you!

Jeff Riggs (Director) is the founding director of Campanile Productions. He was previously seen on stage as Mal Beinike in The Addams Family, Lord Farquard in Shrek, and Gaston in Disney's Beauty and the Beast, When not in the theatre, he is husband to Sherry and Dad to four kids and five grandkids. He is thrilled to be directing this hilarious show!
